Lincoln Institute Notes.

(Too late for last week.)

Students continue to arrive almost daily. Many states are represented.

Both teachers and scholars are full of enthusiasm to make the work of the present year the best in the history of the institution.

President Allen is rapidly creating a "Lincoln Institute spirit" which cannot fail to enhance the value of the school to both patrons and pupils.

The Sunday afternoon services in the Auditorium is well attended and with the Chapel exercises in the morning during the week are looked upon by all as among the

DESERTED HER HUSBAND.

Primary Teacher in Columbia School Suddenly Disappears.

Quite a surprise was sprung at the Fred Douglass school in Columbia Thursday of last week when it was learned that Mrs. F. M. Brashears, who had been primary teacher in the school for fourteen consecutive years, had deserted her husband and her position and left for parts unknown. There seems to be quite a mystery surrounding the affair and about all that could be learned is as follows: On Wednesday morning Principal Coleman received a note from Mrs. Brashears stating that owing to illness she would not be able to perform her duties in school that day and asked that the substitute, Miss Estella Kirklin, be called to take her place. This was done and the day passed without any unusual notice of Mrs. Brashears' absence being taken. After school hours Prof. and Mrs. Coleman called at the Brashears home on 2nd Street and were surprised to find no one at home, and shortly after they had returned home Scott Brashears, husband of the missing woman, called at the home of Prof. Coleman in search of his wife, whom he had not seen since morning, only to find that he had been deserted and on making inquiry it was found that she had boarded the 11 o'clock train for McBaine. Many stories are told as reasons for Mrs. Brashears' sudden departure, but nothing reliable could be learned about the matter other than her departure was the outcome of domestic troubles.

Mrs. Robert Carter, Mrs. Brashears' mother, was seen Saturday evening by a Professional world reporter and when asked as to her daughter's sudden departure, said: "My daughter has gone from Columbia to stay. She has been dissatisfied with her surroundings for some time and decided to stand it no longer. She came to tell me good bye Wednesday and I knew she was going." When asked if she knew where her daughter was, she said: "She left McBaine for St. Louis. She will write me in a few days."

Mr. and Mrs. Brashears have been married about fourteen years and have always resided in Columbia. They have no children.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Mr. John McKim Dead.

Fulton, Mo., Sept. 27th, 1903.—The rider of the pale horse, death, has once more invaded our ranks, and taken therefrom an old veteran of the cross, in the person of Bro. John McKim, who was born in Bourbon county, Kentucky, Sept. 25, 1835, living to the ripe old age of 68 years.

He died on the anniversary of his birth, Sept. 25, 1903. He was married to Miss Mahalia Scott, in 1855, who was to him a faithful and loving companion until her death about 3 years ago. Of this union two sons survive him, John and William, he also leaves a sister and brother and a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. He united with the Second Baptist church of Fulton, in 1880. The funeral services were conducted from the above named church, by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Caston. A large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place.

He is not dead, for "In that great cluster's stillness and seclusion, By guardian angels led, Safe from temptation; safe from sin's pollution, He lives whom we call dead." O dearest bloom the season knows, Flowers of resurrection blow, Our hope and faith restore; And through the bitterness of death And loss and sorrow, breathe a breath, Of life forevermore.

The thought of love immortal blends, With fond remembrances of friends; In you, O sacred flowers, By human love made doubly sweet, The heavenly and the earthly meet, The heart of Christ and ours.

Only Colored Contractor in St. Louis, E. L. Hamlin, Dead.

E. L. Hamlin, the only colored contractor and builder in St. Louis, died at the family residence, 4010 Lee avenue, Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. The funeral services, which will be in charge of Col. Shaw post, G. A. R., of which the deceased was a member, will take place from Central Baptist church, Twenty-third and Morgan streets, next Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, conducted by the pastor.

DIED—SNEED—At his home in Centralia, Mo., Friday Sept. 25th, 1903, William Sneed, age 35 years. He was reared in Centralia and was a most industrious young man and a Christian gentleman. He leaves a wife and two children, a brother, sister and other relatives and a host of friends. He was a member of an excellent family and a brother to Prof. G. W. Sneed of Labadie, Mo. He was a member of the U. B. F. Lodge and his funeral was conducted by the members of that order at Centralia last Sunday.

Dr. Perry.

Dr. J. E. Perry, who has practiced in Columbia, Mo., for eight years with flattering success, has recently located in Kansas City. LYNCHERS LIKELY TO SUFFER.

Fourteen Members of a Tennessee Mob are Under Arrest.

LYNCHBURG, TENN., Sept. 29.—The coroner's jury returned a verdict to the effect that the negro, Allen Smith, who was killed last Thursday night during a raid on the Moore county jail, was "deliberately, maliciously and premeditatedly" murdered and 27 men are named in the verdict as guilty of the crime. Fourteen of the mob are under arrest and warrants for the others have been issued. Three of the prisoners have turned state's evidence and have been released on bond on condition that they will appear as witnesses for the prosecution.

FARMERS' DAY AT COLUMBIA.

Adv. 1 wk.

Tuesday, Oct. 6th, we are to have the best tented exhibition that travels. Gentry Brothers' Big Tented Animal show comes with more trained elephants, ponies, monkeys, dogs, and other animals ever gotten together. A whole train load. This is the largest show of its kind in the world, and the most interesting exhibition ever witnessed under canvas. The prices for this section of the country have been reduced to suit the times. You can take your whole family for a little money and give them a treat never to be forgotten. Come to town early and see the grand free street parade, over one-half a mile long, given precisely at 11 o'clock. Free elephant and pony rides given to all children. Two exhibitions daily, rain or shine under our perfectly waterproof tent. Remember the date. Columbia Oct. 6, day and night.

CATTLE DYING NEAR JOPLIN.

JOPLIN, MO., Sept. 27.—An epidemic among the cattle of northern Indian Territory is killing them off by the hundreds. The disease is what is known as spleen fever and the black leg, and is fatal in nearly every case. In the evening the cattle may be in the best of health and the next morning be dead. In a distance of two miles along the Frisco a Joplin man counted sixty-five head of cattle, which had died from the disease. It is said that the cause of the disease lies in the second growth of grass.

Don Park, aged 32 years, who runs a confectionery store in Kearney, is said to be the smallest man in Missouri. He is 42 inches tall and weighs 56 pounds. He weighed only thirteen pounds when he was five years old. His parents were larger than the average, and he has four brothers and sisters who are of medium size. Mr. park is not badly shaped, and differs from the rest of mankind only in being small. He traveled with a circus several years, but, like a modest Missourian, so disliked to be stared at that he quit the business.

THE CORN IS SAFE.

Potatoes Light, Sorghum Crop Good, Apples Rotting.

U. S. department of agriculture, climate and crop bulletin of the Weather Bureau, Missouri section, for the week ending September 28, 1903.

Light to moderately heavy showers occurred in nearly all sections of the State on the 26th, but during the remainder of the week just closed the weather was very favorable for maturing the corn crop, and also for wheat sowing and the harvesting of late forage crops. The temperature averaged slightly below the normal, but there was very little cloudiness, and late corn has ripened rapidly. Light frost occurred in localities in the northwest section on the twenty-fourth, but did no damage. The cutting of corn has been general in all sections and in many localities is nearly completed. Considerable early corn is dry enough for cribbing. Cotton, in the extreme southeastern counties, is opening rapidly and picking is in progress. Except in a few of the extreme southern counties, where the ground is very dry, wheat sowing is progressing favorably with the soil in fair to excellent condition, and in a number of the northern counties is nearing completion. Early sown wheat and timothy are up and looking well. Potato digging is in progress, and while good yields are reported in some counties, in many the crop is very light. The crop of sweet potatoes is generally good. Sorghum is being worked up and a good yield and quality of syrup is reported in most sections. Clover is being bulled with satisfactory returns, as a rule. There is considerable complaint that apples are rotting and dropping and in most sections good winter apples will be scarce. Pastures are reported dry and short in some of the southern counties, but elsewhere they are in good condition.

SCHOOL TIME.

The house is kind o' restless now,
The old cat purrs a bit
And then gets lonesome for a chance
To arch her back and spit.
There are no footmarks on the floor,
The parlor's dark and cool,
And not a door slams anywhere,
Since Willie's gone to school.
The old dog loiters at the gate
And whimpers all in vain,
For some one will bid him bark
And pull his ears again
Great wisdom's purchased at great cost,
It is life's stubborn rule.
We feel we help to pay the price
When Willie goes to school.
